

---

Quality Technician

All Flex Solutions is a leading provider of specialty flex and rigid flex circuits, flexible heaters, and value-added assemblies for mission and life critical applications. All Flex products can be found in many applications and markets, including medical, defense, aerospace, semiconductor, industrial, and telecommunications. Learn more at AllFlexInc.com.

Responsibilities and Duties:

1. Monitor and assure the proper disposition of materials and products in non-conforming status.
2. Have full working knowledge and understanding of ISO9001:2015, AS9100 and MIL-PRF-31032 quality system requirements
3. Support and participate in the development and improvement of the quality system and related procedures.
4. Support the development of FMEA's, Control Plans, Qualification Plans, PPAPs, etc., for new or revised product and process development initiatives
5. Address and resolve quality concerns internally and with suppliers through root cause analysis and implementation of corrective and preventive action.
6. Develop training to build quality awareness.
7. Reliable attendance.

Required Skills and Abilities:

- Ability to read blueprints, drawings, and/or visual aids
- Ability to use complex measurement tools, i.e. CMM
- Strong interpersonal, communication, and problem-solving skills are required.
- Ability to work under pressure with frequently-changing deadlines and priorities is critical

All Flex Solutions is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer