

Waste Treatment Technician (with Light Maintenance Duties)

All Flex Solutions is a leading provider of specialty flex and rigid flex circuits, flexible heaters, and value-added assemblies for mission and life critical applications. All Flex products can be found in many applications and markets, including medical, defense, aerospace, semiconductor, industrial, and telecommunications. Learn more at AllFlexInc.com.

Essential functions and responsibilities:

- Perform the essential duties of a water/wastewater operator for onsite wastewater treatment system. This will include maintenance of equipment, collection of facility data and samples, troubleshooting and coordinating emergency repairs and documentation of results.
- Operate plant to meet all regulatory guidelines and responsibilities.
- Coordinate tasks/activities with analytical labs, equipment suppliers and vendors.
- Perform routine site inspections.
- Gain competence in analyzing operational data to determine system performance.
- Assist with pump, blower, motor, valve, etc., removal.
- Responsible for all activities and the overall operation/efficiency of a water and wastewater utilities project.
- Light maintenance duties as needed.

Education and Experience:

- High School Diploma or GED
- 2-Year Technical Degree Preferred

Qualifications required:

- Basic knowledge of water and wastewater treatment
- Possess valid MN driver's license
- 40 hour work week
- Must be available to work weekend and holidays as requested

- Overtime as required
- Climbing ladders, stairs, etc.
- Bending or stooping
- Operate a motor vehicle
- Basic computer skills

Qualifications desired:

- 1-year experience in the water, wastewater, or environmental sciences industry
- Understanding of basic laboratory
- Basic electrical and plumbing skills